

TSE Industries, Inc. (“TSE”) Privacy Policy

Version 04/7/2009

TSE respects your privacy. The following statement details the kinds of personally identifying information we gather when you register on our web site. "Personally identifying information" is information that identifies you, such as your name, address, phone number or e-mail address.

Cookies

- Upon your registration or the creation of your account, we send an electronic “cookie” to your computer which allows our computer system to “remember” your information to make it easier for you each time you need to enter your personally identifying information on our web site.

Information sharing

- We do not sell your personally identifying information to other companies or persons, nor do we share such information with non-affiliated companies of TSE Industries, Inc. We may use your personally identifying information to share information with you about our products, services and offers.

Security

- Appropriate measures are taken to secure and protect your personally identifying information against unauthorized access, disclosure or alteration.
- Only those employees with a legitimate need to know your personally identifying information are allowed access to it.

Correcting or Updating your Personally Identifying information

- You may update and/or correct your personally identifying information.

Changes to Privacy Policy

This Policy will be modified from time to time. We reserve the right to make such changes at any time in our discretion. Please check back at regular intervals to note any such changes.

If you desire to contact us about our Privacy Policy, please contact us at Richard.Catalano@tse-industries.com.
